

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Thursday, November 6

1997

---

AARP Exhibits Council Meeting At Marshall Center Thurs.

Marshall is hosting a meeting of the Exhibits Advisory Council of AARP Thursday. AARP staff members and convention sponsors are here to plan for the organization's biannual convention which will be held in Minneapolis, Minn., June 2 - 4, 1998. NASA's International Space Station Trailer Exhibit, managed by Marshall, will be featured at the convention.

---

Fri. is Last Day to Give to 1997 Combined Federal Campaign

---

Nov. is National American Indian Heritage Month

---

STS-85 Crew Visiting Thurs.

Crew members of the STS-85 Space Shuttle mission are visiting Marshall Thursday. Commander Curtis Brown, Pilot Kent Rominger, Payload Commander Jan Davis, and Mission Specialists Robert Curbeam and Stephen Robinson are here. During a program Thursday morning, the crew presented highlights of the STS-85 mission.